One of the Every Home ministry directors in Russia has a daughter who depends on medicine from Europe, but the sanctions against the Russian government threaten to end their access to this medicine. Please pray for God to meet the needs of families throughout the region so that the innocent do not suffer. (Proverbs 4–6)

8 Sunday
Ukraine

Pop. 43,700,000
3.6%
WPM # 92

Please pray for the family of the Every Home ministry director in Ukraine. His family has sought safety with our Eurasian Continental team in Slovakia while he has returned to Ukraine to coordinate relief work. Please pray for the Holy Spirit to fill their hearts with peace while they are separated. (Psalms 57–59)

11 Wednesday
Slovakia

Pop. 5,400,000
1.4%
WPM # 77

At the time this is written, more than 195,000 Ukrainian refugees have crossed the border into Slovakia. Please pray for these families who have been separated from their homes, jobs, and communities as they try to make ends meet in a nation not their own. Pray for the Lord to guide them. (Proverbs 19–21)

14 Saturday
Rep. of Moldova

Pop. 3,300,000
4.6%
WPM # 94

At the time this is written, about 350,000 refugees have fled from Ukraine to Moldova. Among the nations bordering Ukraine, Moldova is the smallest and possibly the least resourced to respond. Please pray that Moldova will be able to meet the needs of the refugee families without being overwhelmed. (Proverbs 28–31)

3 Tuesday
Eurasia

Every Home teams in countries surrounding Ukraine have shifted their ministry focus to caring for refugees and are preparing gospel literature and other materials to share. Please pray that the love demonstrated by these teams and the printed messages they share will touch hearts and lead many to Jesus. (1 Kings 1–4)

6 Friday
Ukraine

Pop. 43,700,000

WPM # 91

Belarusian President Lukashenko is an ally of Russian President Putin and has aided the Russian military in its invasion of Ukraine. At the time this is written, experts predict that the Belarusian military may soon also invade Ukraine. Please pray for the Lord to move the heart of President Lukashenko to seek peace instead. (Proverbs 13–15)

12 Thursday
Hungary

Pop. 9,700,000
3.0%
WPM # 76

Aid stations in Hungary were prepared to receive the thousands of refugees who have fled from violence in Ukraine, and the government says that it is prepared to receive up to 900,000 refugees total. Please pray that Hungary will be a haven for these families as they seek help during this dark time. (Proverbs 22–24)

15 Sunday
Russia

Pop. 142,300,000
1.4%
WPM # 93

One of the Every Home ministry directors in Russia has family in Ukraine. “I call every two or three hours,” he says. “Everyone is in fear. Planes fly low.” Please pray for families who live on opposite sides of this conflict, which has forced them apart when they most want to be together. Pray for their peace and safety. (Psalms 60–62)

17	Tuesday	Pop. 9,400,000
	Belarus	1.6% WPM # 91

There are reports that wounded Russian soldiers are being taken to hospitals in Belarus for care. Please pray that these soldiers will recover physically, but also pray that they will encounter the gospel of Jesus while in Belarus. May the truth and love of the Savior change hearts and redirect lives. (Song of Solomon 5-8)

20	Friday	Pop. 9,700,000
	Hungary	3.0% WPM # 76

Hungarians have rallied to donate food, clothes, and other necessities to the Ukrainian refugees who arrive seeking help. The great need now is for volunteers to help connect these resources to the families who desperately need them. Please pray that Hungarians with wise, servant hearts will feel called to help. (Ecclesiastes 1-4)

23	Monday	Pop. 142,300,000
	Russia	1.4% WPM # 93

More than 15,000 Russians have been arrested for protesting the war in Ukraine, despite free speech being protected by the Russian constitution. Please pray for these brave citizens who have raised their voices in calls for peace. Pray that justice will be done and that freedom will reign in this nation. (Ecclesiastes 9-12)

26	Thursday	Pop. 43,700,000
	Ukraine	3.6% WPM # 92

At the time this is written, the Every Home ministry director of Ukraine has received permission from the Ukrainian government to coordinate trips across the border. Going into Ukraine, vans carry food and supplies. Leaving Ukraine, the same vans carry fleeing families. Please pray for this project and those it will help. (1 Kings 18-20)

29	Sunday	Pop. 334,900,000
	USA	26.7% WPM # 1

At the time this is written, the U.S. government is discussing ways to help Ukrainian refugees come to the United States. Please pray that American churches and believers will be ready and waiting to befriend these families, care for their needs, love them, and share the saving message of the gospel with them. (Psalms 66-68)

18	Wednesday	Pop. 38,100,000
	Poland	0.3% WPM # 70

At the time this is written, more than 400 Ukrainian children with cancer have been evacuated to Poland. It is no longer possible for them to receive treatment in their own country. A medical center in Poland is providing treatment for these children with help from other countries. Please pray for the Lord to heal and provide. (1 Kings 5-7)

21	Saturday	Pop. 21,200,000
	Romania	6.3% WPM # 81

International sanctions against the Russian government have threatened 2,500 Romanian jobs that depended on trade with Russia. Company accounts have been frozen and wages lost. Please pray for the Romanian government as it seeks to protect these jobs amid ongoing uncertainty and upheaval. (Ecclesiastes 5-8)

24	Tuesday	Pop. 43,700,000
	Ukraine	3.6% WPM # 92

As families fled to the border, the Ukrainian government called for men of fighting age to remain and defend the country. This forced many families to decide whether to remain together in a war zone or split up, uncertain of when they would be reunited. Please pray for the safety of the families that are facing this difficult decision. (1 Kings 12-14)

27	Friday	Pop. 5,400,000
	Slovakia	1.4% WPM # 77

"I believe love and peace will win," the Every Home ministry director in Slovakia shares. "I am certain." In times of upheaval, believers must hold tightly to God, who never changes. Please pray that this difficult time will compel families across Eurasia to embrace the saving love of the Prince of Peace. (1 Kings 21-22; 2 Kings 1)

30	Monday	Pop. 43,700,000
	Ukraine	3.6% WPM # 92

"Criminal Ukrainians know that the refugees running for their lives are vulnerable and have all their valuables with them," reports the Every Home area director of Eastern Europe. "These families are becoming prey for those with hearts of stone." Please pray for the Lord to protect vulnerable families from this threat. (2 Kings 5-7)

16	Monday	Pop. 43,700,000
	Ukraine	3.6% WPM # 92

Please pray for the needs of those affected by the war. "Some will need money to get to the train, some for transportation out of the country (if that is still possible — some roads and bridges are just not there anymore)," the Every Home ministry director in Slovakia reports. "Some need food because they are starving" (Song of Solomon 1-4)

19	Thursday	Pop. 5,400,000
	Slovakia	1.4% WPM # 77

While most of the refugees who arrive from Ukraine are moving on to other parts of Europe, the Slovakian government anticipates that the next wave of refugees will not have the same means to travel. Please pray that those who must remain in Slovakia will find communities ready to welcome and care for them. (1 Kings 8-11)

22	Sunday	Pop. 3,300,000
	Rep. of Moldova	4.6% WPM # 94

At the time this is written, the Transdnistria region of Moldova is held by pro-Russian separatists, and Russian troops are stationed there despite calls for them to leave — a deeply concerning situation for the Moldovan government. Please pray for peace to prevail instead of an escalation of hostilities. (Psalms 63-65)

25	Wednesday	Pop. 142,300,000
	Russia	1.4% WPM # 93

Following economic sanctions against Russia, the ruble has dropped to its lowest value ever, and supply chains have been disrupted. These sanctions are designed to put pressure on the Russian government, but the Russian people are bearing the worst of it. Please pray for God to provide for families in need. (1 Kings 15-17)

28	Saturday	Pop. 43,700,000
	Ukraine	3.6% WPM # 92

Thousands of Ukrainian brothers, fathers, and sons between the ages of 18 and 60 have traded their normal day jobs to take up arms in defense of their country. Most are civilians with minimal training and no combat experience. Please pray for the Lord to protect their lives and bring peace to their nation. (2 Kings 2-4)

31	Tuesday	Pop. 5,400,000
	Slovakia	1.4% WPM # 77

Times like these can lead us to despair, but the Every Home ministry director of Slovakia reminds us: "All the atrocities and hate happening in this war have not even a chance to overrule the love that has been poured out on us through Christ, our only Lord." Please pray for the Holy Spirit to encourage believers everywhere. (2 Kings 8-10)
